Explanatory Notes & Checklist

Explanatory Notes

Introduction

All personal information will be handled in accordance with the Australian Privacy Act. Details may be verified with or provided to other agencies where necessary or required by law.

A complete application includes all the required documentation which has been correctly certified. If time permits, you will be notified in writing if we need any additional information to process your application. Incomplete applications will result in processing delays or refusal of this application.

You will be notified in writing of the outcome of your application and the next steps in the process. In order to prevent delays, candidates must ensure that their email address is correct and accessible, since the majority of correspondence with candidates will be via email.

Please note:

- To prevent delays in processing of your application please read the application form (including the Explanatory Notes & Checklist) carefully and ensure you have provided all the relevant supporting documentation and that the documents provided are correctly certified
- Please refer to the Australian Dental Council's certification guidelines which can be downloaded from the ADC website at <http://www.adc.org.au/>

Certification

It is essential that copies of documents are certified by an appropriate person as a true copy of the original.

Please refer to the Australian Dental Council's certification guidelines which can be downloaded from the ADC website at <http://www.adc.org.au/>.

Do not send original documents. Any original documents submitted to the ADC will not be returned to you.

Translation of Documents

Certified translations in English of all non-English documents must be provided and attached to the document/s to which they refer. The ADC reserves the right to request that applicants provide translation completed by a National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (NAATI) professional translator (formerly known as Level 3).

Please note:

- The translator's details (name, address, etc.) must be stated in English
- Certification statements on translated documents must be translated in English.

Identity/Change of Name

Applicants must state their full legally registered name exactly as it appears in your passport. Any change in name will need to be supported by official documentation showing the link with previous names (e.g. before and after marriage). The ADC does not accept Affidavits/Statutory Declarations for this purpose.

Applicant's Personal Contact Details

ALL candidates must complete Section B of this application to ensure accurate information is provided for future use.

It is the candidate's responsibility to advise the ADC of any change of contact details; please refer to the change of contact details form which can be found on the ADC website. Re-issuing of documentation/correspondence will incur an administrative fee.

Agents

The ADC normally deals directly with applicants for the Practical Examination. Australia's privacy legislation prohibits the ADC from discussing your application with other people (third parties) unless specifically authorised to do so.

If you want someone else, such as a family member or other agent, to deal with the ADC on your behalf, you will need to indicate this by completing the ADC's Authority to Act form. Once your Authority to Act form has been processed all correspondence will be sent only to the person you have nominated.

Please refer to the ADC's Authority to Act form which can be downloaded from the ADC website at <http://www.adc.org.au/>

Closing Dates

Candidates can apply to sit for any eligible Practical Examination session, which are specified on the ADC website for your convenience.

Applications received by the ADC after the nominated booking dates will not be processed under any circumstances.

Applications will only be accepted between the following booking dates:

March 2018: Sessions – Bookings open 31 July 2017 – Bookings close 25 August 2017

Applications will be open only to candidates in the following two categories:

1. Candidates who had applied for, but who were not offered, a place in 2017 due to limited places.
2. Candidates who passed the written examination in February 2017

Priority:

The ADC will place a priority when allocating applications:

Priority 1 – Candidates who applied for, but who were not offered, a place in 2017 due to a limited number of places.

Priority 2 – Candidates who passed the Written Examination held in February 2017 and have not previously sat a practical examination.

Priority 3 – Candidates who passed the Written Examination held in February 2017 and have previously sat one or more Practical Examinations.

Venue

The Practical Examination is conducted only in Australia. The examinations are offered at five venues at the same time in each session. You may nominate your preferred venue however this cannot be guaranteed. Should you have any compelling reasons for a particular venue please indicate this on a separate sheet along with your application form.

Please note:

All visa and travel arrangements are the responsibility of the candidate. Candidates should ensure they are able to travel to their nominated venue at the required time, you should seek the advice of the Department of Immigration in your state or territory (<http://www.border.gov.au/>)

It is advisable that you do not book accommodation or travel until your application has been confirmed in writing.

English language test – OET and IELTS Results

Candidates are not required to provide evidence of English language proficiency to sit the ADC Practical Examination.

Candidates are advised that, on completing the ADC process, evidence of English language skills may be required by AHPRA for registration purposes www.ahpra.gov.au or by the Department of Immigration and Border Protection <http://www.border.gov.au/> for migration purposes. Candidates are advised to consult the websites of these organisations for further information.

Payment

Money orders/bank cheques should be in Australian dollars, drawn against an Australian bank and made payable to the Australian Dental Council. Personal cheques will not be accepted. Please note that we are unable to accept cheques from the Bank of India or cheques with adhesive tape on the face of the cheque.

If you are paying by Visa or MasterCard, please ensure that there are sufficient funds in your account to cover the fee transaction. The ADC will make one attempt only to process the fee payment from your nominated credit card.

Applications and examination fees are non-transferable.

Withdrawal from the examination

Candidates withdrawing from an examination must do so by advising the ADC in writing using the Notification of Withdrawal from an ADC Examination form available from www.adc.org.au . Withdrawal statements will not be accepted by email or telephone.

Please refer to the Practical Examination Handbook for further details.

Please note:

Failure to undertake the examination because of an inability to obtain necessary visas or to arrange travel, etc. will be considered a withdrawal and the withdrawal policy will apply.
