

Taking the time to review and complete the checklist below before submitting your application helps us process it faster and reduces the chance we'll need to follow up for missing information.

ADC Connect profile details

Entered your full legal name exactly as it appears on your passport

Entered the correct phone number and residential address

Completed the second page with emergency contact details and authority to act.

Application type

Skills assessment only is for practitioners meeting these requirements

Registration only is for practitioners whose purpose is to register as a dental practitioner in Australia and complete the whole ADC process.

Identity documents and photograph

Uploaded a clear colour copy (photo) of your current, valid passport, including the signature page with all four corners visible

Uploaded a photo of the signature page, if the signature is on a different page in your passport. Where possible, merged both pages into a single document (instructions on how to do this can be found here)

Uploaded a recent, clear colour photograph of yourself (following the Australian passport photo guidelines). The photo must be unedited and unfiltered, taken against an unchanged background.

You may take this photograph with your mobile phone.

Qualification documents

Uploaded your degree certificate (official, not provisional)

Uploaded your Academic transcript that confirms your grades/marks for each subject, minimum passing grade/mark and successful completion of the following key subjects:

- Anatomy
- Biochemistry
- Physiology
- Pathology
- Endodontics
- Oral Surgery
- Orthodontics
- Paediatrics
- Periodontology
- Pharmacology and therapeutics
- Radiology
- Restorative and conservative dentistry

Internship certificate (if this is a mandatory requirement of your degree).

Final document review

Ensured your names match across all documents. If there are discrepancies, include supporting evidence

Provided English translations for all non-English documents according to the ADC translation guidelines

The ADC does not require copies of documents to be certified.

Skills Assessment only requirements

If you are applying for Skills Assessment only, have you also:

Requested a Letter/Certificate of Good Standing to be sent directly to ADC from your regulatory authority:

- By email: assessment.connect@adc.org.au
- Or by post:

ADC Assessments
PO Box 13278
Law Courts VIC 8010
Australia

Provided employment history documentation, including:

- Letters from each employer confirming work experience
- And/or evidence of self-employment (e.g. accountant letter or registering authority records)

Provided two professional references prepared in line with our Obtaining Professional References guide.